Welcome to LaborFest 2006

LaborFest 2006 commemorates the history of the 1934 San Francisco General Strike through art, music and film. This year also marks the 100th anniversary of the San Francisco earthquake and we will honor the working people who rebuilt the city with a photographic exhibition, history walks, a cable car ride and other events. The monumental task was mostly completed in only three years and it was the skill, ingenuity and union organization that made this feat possible. At the time, San Francisco had a union labor party in power and the mayor Eugene Schmitz was also the president of the Musician's Union.

This year also marks the 60th anniversary of the 1946 Oakland General strike, which was the last general strike in the US, and we will have a history walk through Oakland and a commemoration with the some of the workers. The strike started by retail workers seeking to get a union and was joined by the transit workers who shut down Oakland in order to defend the right to organize and make it a union city.

Finally, this is the 120th anniversary of May Day and Haymarket. It takes place this year in the midst of the largest mass workers mobilization on May Day since the 1930's. Over one and a half million mostly immigrant workers marched on May Day throughout the country and this event represents a historic development in US working class history.

Knowledge and understanding of our labor history and traditions is crucial if we are going to move forward in defending labor and workers' rights.

In Solidarity,
The LaborFest Organizing Committee

60th Anniversary Celebration of The 1946 Oakland General Strike

Music

Speakers!

The Oakland General Strike was the last of six general strikes in 1946, which is still the all-time record year for strikes and work stoppages. This event will attempt to keep the memory of that era of community-wide working class solidarity alive.

Oakland's "Work Holiday" began spontaneously with rank-and-file solidarity with women strikers at Kahn's department store in defiance of police scab herding. Within 24 hours, it involved over 100,000 people and shut down nearly all commerce in the East Bay for 54 hours.

Together with the Labor Studies Program at Laney College, we invite you to a forum with Evelyn and Val Schaaf and Earl Watkins, who participated in the strike; Gifford Hartman's multi media presentation and a documentary; Albert Lannon, retired chair of Labor Studies at Laney college, whose musical tribute to the General Strike will

Pins and Needles

By Folk This!

The Indelible Voices Project, in conjunction with LaborFest and Opera Non Troppo, presents a concert version of the 1937 hit musical Pins and Needles, commissioned by the International Ladies Garment Workers' Union (ILGWU) and written by Harold Rome. Originally envisioned as an amateur musical review, Pins and Needles became the musical sensation of Broadway, playing 1,108 performances, a record that was broken in 1945 by Oklahoma. Gone but not forgotten, this concert performance uses songs and sketches from various sources, including the Harold Rome Papers at Yale University, the Library of Congress, and commercial sources. The score is brilliant, with songs such as Sing

Me a Song with Social Significance, Doing the Reactionary, Sitting on Your Status Quo, Nobody Makes a Pass at Me and Mene Mene Tekel. Also performing will be 1937 original cast member and ILGWU retiree Millie Weitz.

Advance tickets recommended, as seating is limited.
